

THE THIRD INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON COMPUTATIONAL MATHEMATICS AND ENGINEERING SCIENCES (CMES-2018), GIRNE, 04-06 MAY 2018

The Third International Conference on Computational Mathematics and Engineering Sciences (CMES-2018) has been held in Final International University from May 04 to 06, 2018 in Girne/CYPRUS. It provides an ideal academic platform for researchers and professionals to discuss recent developments in both theoretical, applied mathematics and engineering sciences. This event aims also to stimulate interactions between researchers in the field of computational mathematics and their applications in science and engineering, to present the development reached in this areas, and to showcase the computational expertise of our invited speakers and participants.
